A SUNDAY REFLECTION

What Do You Think ??? ...

Did Jesus suffer? Was Jesus sometimes lonely? Was he tempted to be discouraged? Was he misunderstood, maligned, and criticized unjustly? As you read through the Gospels, you'll quickly see that the answer to all these questions is: YES. So, what makes any of us think we'll be exempted from suffering or loneliness or discouragement or unjust criticism? The truth is, God is developing within you the character of Christ, and in order to do this, he must take you through all of the circumstances in life that he took Christ through. This means God is more interested in your character than your comfort, and he's more concerned about your holiness than your happiness. So, the question is not if you'll go through dark times in life, rather it's when you'll go through them.

YOUR PRAYER & HELP ARE NEEDED

We are trying to organize a special pilgrimage (short one) to Lourdes, for some disabled and sick brethren. Those severely disabled would require a personal care-giver & some of those who would want to go cannot meet the cost. So we are also looking for donations. I will give details at a later time...THANK YOU!
